About this Course

As a landowner, you invest much time and effort managing and improving your land. But what happens to the land and the forest when you are no longer the owner?

There are many options available to assist you with passing your land on. These options include inter-generational transfer, generation skipping, conservation easements, gifting and creation of certain business entities. However, all these options require careful planning and time.

This year's Master Tree Farmer Program (you DO NOT need to be a Master Tree Farmer to participate) will be a three week mini-series designed to assist you in planning for the future owner. The program will be offered at many locations throughout Virginia.

The cost for this program will be $45, including a notebook of materials.

This course is a segment of the Master Tree Farmer Program: mastertreefarmer.org.

An Equal Opportunity Provider

If you are a person with a disability and desire any assistive devices, services or other accommodations to participate in this activity, please contact Jennifer Gagnon, VFLEP 540/231-6391 during business hours of 8 a.m. and 5 p.m. to discuss accommodations five days prior to the event.

Registration

The registration fee of $45/person includes short course participation, a comprehensive student notebook, and refreshments. Registration for spouses (sharing a notebook) is $20. Pre-registration is strongly recommended to ensure adequate notebooks and space.

Who Should Attend

This short course is for forest and farmland owners, future heirs of such properties, natural resource professionals, and interested citizens.

Refund and Cancellation Policy

Requests for refunds will be honored if received three full working days before the start of the course. Course locations may be cancelled due to insufficient enrollment. If the course location for which you registered is cancelled the full registration fee will be refunded, or you may attend the course at an alternate location.
